The following day, stroll through the lovely VanDusen Botanical Garden, spanning 55 acres and containing over 7,500 plant species worldwide. There's always something new blooming. This afternoon, board your Holland America cruise. This will be your floating hotel for the evening and includes entertainment with lunch, dinner and breakfast. Wake up in Elliott Bay, where our coach will wait to take you to experience Seattle's newly redesigned waterfront. You will not want to miss the new elevated overlook park (occupying part of the old viaduct freeway), with 20 acres featuring 360-degree views of downtown Seattle, Lumen Field, T-Mobile Park, Elliott Bay and the Olympic Mountains. You will also have the option to choose one activity on the waterfront: the Seattle Aquarium, Big Wheel, or the Fly Over Washington film. Lunch options are available both at Miners Landing on the waterfront or at Pike Place Market via the new elevator. This is a mini-vacation, you will not want to miss!
